Цитирање

Цитирање је метод преко којег се приказује коришћење извора и идеја при изради научног рада на стандардизован начин.

Цитати пружају доказе за потврђивање или оповргавање неке идеје и дају кредибилитет раду тако што пружају увид у изворе у којима су тражене информације коришћене.

Цитати обично подразумевају основне информације за идентификацију коришћене литературе, као што су име аутора, наслов и број стране.

Стилови цитирања

Стил	где се најчешће користи
APA	психологија, друштвене науке, у свету најчешће коришћен начин цитирања
MLA	уметност, књижевност, хуманистичке науке
AMA	медицина, биолошке науке
Чикаго	историја, економија, друштвене науке
CSE	природне науке

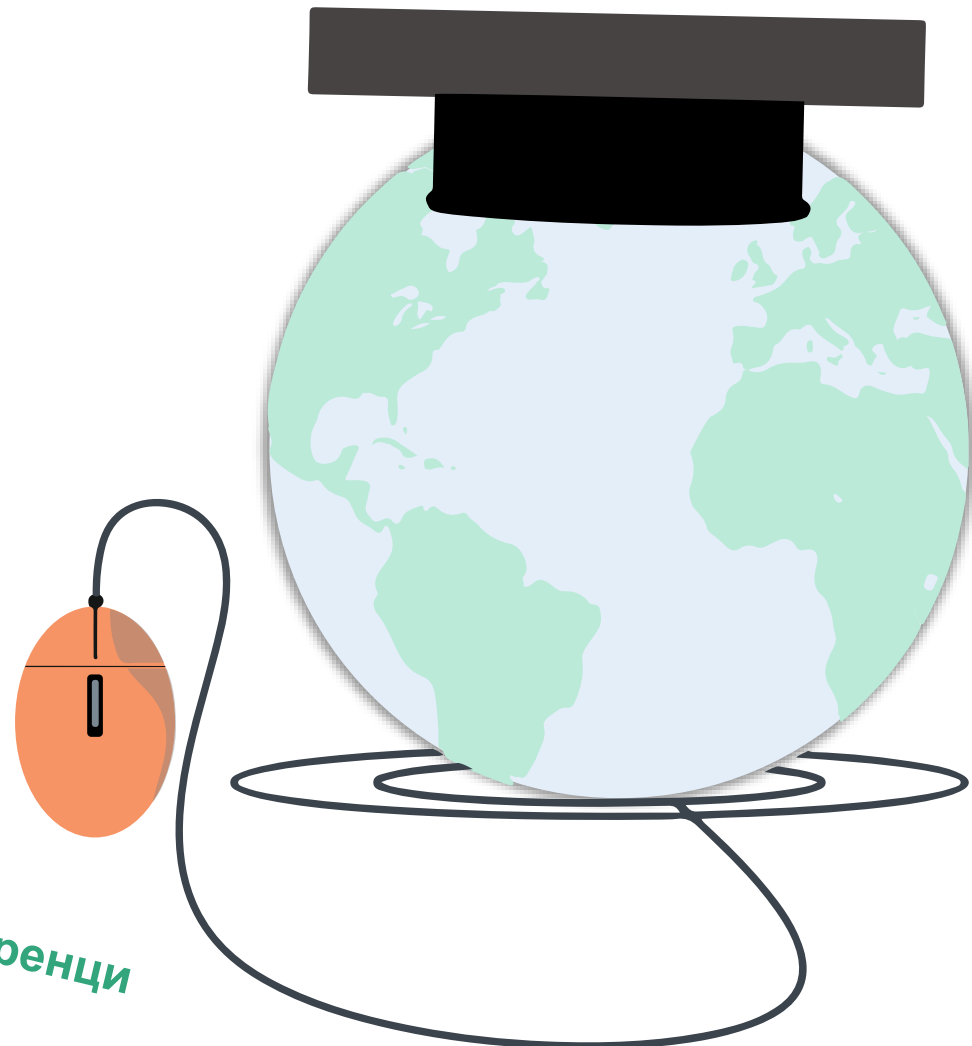

Шта су библиографски алати?

Софтвери за организовање библиографских база података и аутоматизовано форматирање библиографских референци.

Abstract

Autor u radu analizira odnos potpisanog Temelnog ugovora između Crne Gore i Srpske pravoslavne crkve sa načelom odvojenosti države i verskih zajednica proklamovanim crnogorskim Ustavom. Nakon sumarnog prikaza uporednih evropskih rešenja, u radu je zauzet stav da Crna Gora pripada sistemima u kojima (još uvek) postoji odvojenost striktnog tipa, nasuprot sve prisutnijem i poželjnijem modelu kooperativne odvojenosti. Polazeći najpre od društveno-političkih okolnosti koje su neposredno prethodile momentu potpisivanja, autor kandiduje tezu po kojoj, iako već i izmenjeni Zakon o slobodi veroispovesti tako nešto naznačuje, Temeljni ugovor može biti onaj prelomni događaj u evoluciji shvatanja odnosa države i crkve u Crnoj Gori, kao odnosa koji treba da se zasniva na međusobnoj saradnji i neisključivostima. Ovakva teza pokušava se argumentovati kako kroz izlaganje stavova o pravnoj prirodi Temelnog ugovora, kao načela ili načelnog pravog odnosa između države i crkve, ali i kroz izlaganje stavova o pravnoj prirodi odnosa između države i crkve.

Title Methodology and framework of comparative urban planning law
Author Jeon, Jinwon
Abstract Purpose This study aims to systematise the methodology used in comparative urban planning law and propose primary contexts for comparison in planning law. Design/methodology/approach This study undertook a review of comparative law methodology discourse and sought to establish connections between the discourse and the field of planning law. Findings This study argues for establishment of a realistic goal for comparative planning law by focusing on the planning law's modifiability. The goal of comparison in planning law should not be to find universally desirable principles or better solutions. Rather, the goal should be to identify a motive for devising a solution. This is because it is not only difficult to establish legal values that are universally applicable to planning law but also inappropriate to determine superiority of planning laws that have been developed over time by each jurisdiction's sovereignty and policies on land use. When determining comparable systems for analysis among legal systems that
